

University of Texas - Spanish Conversation Topics

Under the menu item "Beginning" you can find a number of categories to learn about. Each category includes video interviews with related grammar, vocabulary, and phrases.

YouTube: Señor Jordan - Basic Conversation

These videos present important phrases and expressions in a simple and entertaining way. Choose the videos with the title "Basic Conversation" to learn about basic conversations in Spanish.

Lingus TV - Learning Videos

This website hosts a number of entertaining videos made especially for beginners. You can read along with a transcript of each video. You can also find English translations of the transcript as well as grammar notes about specific Spanish phrases.

Todo Claro - Exercises for Beginners

This Spanish learning portal has many exercises for beginners in grammar, cultural studies, communication situations, and vocabulary.

Fodors.com - Basic Phrases

This site lists basic but important phrases and vocabulary in Spanish by category. Choose a category from the menu on the left to view the phrases.

YouTube: MrLearnSpanish - Beginner Spanish

The YouTube channel "MrLearn Spanish" has a video playlist made especially for beginners. Here you can learn about basic Spanish communication situations and find Spanish grammar explanations in English.

Languages Online - Beginner Spanish Course

This 15-lesson course is excellent for beginners. It includes lessons on introducing yourself, talking about family, numbers, and other basic vocabulary. The content is geared towards children, with lots of audio exercises, songs, and online as well as downloadable exercises.

Wikibooks.org - Beginner's Course

Wikibooks provides an online Spanish language course split into nine lessons. Each lesson has grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation tips. The project is based on the principle of Wikipedia, so users can work on and improve the course.

